

Amna Bakht

Completed

P240 Early Detection of Oral Cancer

On 9th of August 2021

Learning Content - Online presentation followed by validation questions

Aims & Objectives

- To understand how to perform a systematic examination for oral cancer
- To understand what to refer and when

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this module you will understand the most appropriate method to assess for mouth cancer and when to refer the patient.

Development Outcomes

C

This activity represents
1 hour 30 minutes of verifiable CPD

Robert Dyas, Director

ProDental CPD confirms that the information covered in this course was complete and accurate on the date of attendance. All verifiable CPD materials are developed in-house, and pass a rigorous peer review process for quality assurance before the material is released. Robert Dyas, Clinical Director, BDS DCH MMedSci FDS RCS.